Re: ITKF International Summer Camp

ITKF Hidetaka Nishiyama World Cup

Dear Members,

The ITKF is proud and excited to announce that the ITKF International Summer Camp will be held on June 1 (Wednesday) – June 4 (Saturday), 2022 and ITKF Hidetaka Nishiyama World Cup will be held on June 5 (Sunday), 2022 in a beautiful coastal area in Greece known as Nea Flogita, Halkidiki, about 40 km. from the nearest airport in Thessaloniki.

For over 50 years, the annual ITKF Camp was held at the University of California's UCSD San Diego campus. This year, ITKF has decided to ensure this camp continues its rich tradition by selecting another site, one that is easily accessible to the many European/Mediterranean/African/Middle East federation members.

As previously announced, top masters will be in attendance to conduct the technical portion of the camp, supported by the ITKF Chairman, prof. d-r Vladimir Jorga and the former ITKF multiply world and European champions: Krzysztof Neugebauer-Poland, Silvio Campari-Italy, Musat Cornel-Romania and d-r Dejan Nedev-Macedonia.

This year's camp, co-hosted by the European Traditional Karate Federation (ETKF) and the Balkan Federation, will continue to offer the much sought after and highly technical Masters' Course, ITKF Dan Ranking examinations and Certification for Instructors and Judges upon successful course completion and examination.

Detailed information on accommodations and transportation as well as camp application forms are attached. Please be sure to register by May 1, 2022, to take advantage of the Early Bird rate.

Sincerely,

Prof. Vladimir Jorga M.D., PhD.
ITKF Chairman

D-r Dejan Nedev
ITKF General Secretary

CAMP PROGRAM

CO- HOSTED BY

ETKF-BTKF

ITKF has established a historic new Traditional Karate training system based on Budo philosophy and fundamental principles, supported by evidence and research of sports science. The ITKF Camp offers a unique program that incorporates, in one total package, the new Traditional Karate training system and competition based on Budo, regardless of style. This year's training will focus on the link between these principles and the training opportunity of competition – with a particular focus on youth.

1. General Course

Traditional Karate principles applied to techniques in general using the new system.

2. Masters' Course

- a. Applied Traditional Karate principles as educational art and Budo in training, instruction and competition using the ITKF training system and Competition Rules.
- b. Coaches' Certification Course and Judges' Registration Course with examinations for both.

Note: One year "Instructors License" will be issued to qualified member technical officials upon completion of Masters' Course and successful examinations for both Coaches and Judges.

3. ITKF HIDETAKA NISHIYAMA WORLD CUP

INSTRUCTORS

As previously announced, this year's technical portion of the camp will be led by Top Masters, supported by the ITKF Chairman, Mr. Vladimir Jorga, and the former ITKF multiply world and European champions: Krzysztof Neugebauer-Poland, Silvio Campari-Italy, Musat Cornel-Romania and Dejan Nedev-Macedonia.
